Posted: 11/13/2012
Application Due: Open Until Filled
Type: Full Time

Founded in 1897, Piedmont College is a private, comprehensive liberal arts college with an enrollment of approximately 2,500 students at campuses in Demorest and Athens, Georgia. This position is for both the Demorest and Athens campuses as well as off-campus locations, and has an August 1, 2013, start date.

Applications are being accepted for an Assistant or Associate Professor of Education to teach courses in curriculum development, school improvement, assessment, or differentiation for instruction at the specialist and/or doctoral level at both the Demorest and Athens campuses. Some teaching in Piedmont's off-campus locations may be required. Additional duties include: serve as chair for doctoral dissertation committees; serve on doctoral dissertation committees; participate in program development activities. A doctorate in curriculum and instruction or a related field along with teaching and/or administrative experience in a k-12 setting is required. Previous college/university teaching experience preferred.

Applicants should submit a letter of application; curriculum vitae; unofficial copies of transcripts; and names, phone numbers and email address of three references electronically in one email to: hrapplicant@piedmont.edu. No phone calls will be accepted. Review of applicants will begin upon receipt and continue until the position is filled.
